WILSON'S PARADE

Preparations for Inaugural
About Completed.

Large Cities Asked to Send Picked Detectives.

Suffragettes Predict Big Turnout in Parade.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Preparations for the inaugural ceremonies are moving swiftly to completion.
The inaugural committee appropriated today $21,000 for the reviewing stand at Lafayette square, and the President's stand in front of the White House. These two stands form the nucleus of the court of honor, the keynote of the entire decorative scheme.

A feature of the parade eliminated
since the inauguration of Grover Cleveland will be a donkey. The animal will march at the head of the Young Men's Democratic Club of Washington. To protect visitors to Washington it has been planned to assign a detail of picked detectives to aid the local authorities.

The purely naval contingent in the parade will comprise about 1000 uniformed men, while an equally large number of uniformed men will be in the army and militia contingents.
Among the civilians Chicago is to be represented by Mayor Carter Harrison, and about 800 stalwart Democrats, while the State of Illinois will be represented by Gov. Deneen and his staff, the latter in uniform.

The National American Woman's Suffrage Association practically has completed plans for its pageant on March 3. All sections of the country will be represented by marchers or cavalry squadrons. The suffragists reviewing stand on the south front of the Treasury, will be ready within a few days. Applications for seats on all the stands for the pageant promise to exceed the supply.

Women of Columbus, O., will come to Washington in a special train to arrive on March 3. They will appear in one section of the parade.

WILSON IS FEARLESS.

Walks Streets of Princeton Unaccompanied by Secret Service Men.

Short Hands His Inaugural Address.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
PRINCETON (N. J.) Feb. 6.—

President-elect Wilson walked today unaccompanied by secret service men from his home to the Princeton University library to work there upon his inaugural address.

"I guess I can walk the streets of Princeton alone," he said smiling.

Mr. Wilson was accompanied by the conference-room of the library sketching in shorthand the first draft of his address.

"I intend to be as brief as possible,"
he remarked, "and I'll certainly read it very fast if the weather is as cold
as today."

Mr. Wilson said he would be unable to attend the exercises in Washington, Feb. 16, in memory of the late Vice-President Sherman.

SARKE OR NOT TO STRIKE.

Main Office of Pacific States Telephone Company Know Nothing of Strike to Go Out.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—If the

lineament of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company in California, Washington, Oregon, Arizona and the southern half of Nevada, numbering some 3000, are prepared to strike unless their demands for higher wages are granted, the main office of the company here, know nothing of it.

"No demands on us have been made," said C. W. Burkett, in charge of all construction work, today, "and so far as I know, there have been no negotiations whatsoever between the company and the lineament."

The offices of the electrical workers here were closed today, and none of the officers of the union could be found. "In Fresno it was said yesterday that a secret vote was being taken throughout the territory named as to whether a strike should be called on the men's demand for an increase of pay from $2.75 to $4 a day."

of Police George M. Shippy, who escaped from a hospital yesterday, officially was declared insane today and

DR. HEID TALKS.

Held said:

"I went all the way to Europe for one dose of the serum and could not get it—from Dr. Friedmann. He is a most mercenary man. The secret is being stolen from him, and it was only through this fact that I was able to get any of the serum. I have now enough for forty patients and another vial of the treatment was forwarded from Berlin on February 1, sufficient for thirty more patients. I was able to get the serum from Dr.
Friedmann only with the understanding that I report to him the clinical results."

Of the success of the discovery
in destroying the white plague, Dr.
Heid said:

"It cures 100 per cent. of cases of tuberculosis in the first stage; 75 per cent. of the second stage cases, and about 50 per cent. of others. Of course, you cannot take a dead-man and make him well with it."

Dr. Heid said for the benefit of those contemplating to go to Europe for treatment for tuberculosis, that he brought to this country, Dr. Fried-mann, a physician of Pittsburgh, arrived on the steamship Potsdam from Europe today and at once took a train for his home, where his wife, who is suffering from tuberculosis, awaits the arrival of what Dr. Heid hopes will be a cure for her.

Dr. Heid was met at quarantine by Dr. Milton H. Foster of the White Island health service and questioned in behalf of the United States government about the Friedmann cure.

Dr. Heid told Dr. Foster he had been convinced of the efficacy of the cure and had obtained from Dr.
Friedmann just enough serum to treat
a patient suffering from tuberculosis of the lungs.

Dr. Friedmann, the German scientist who discovered the serum, was offered one million dollars by the United States government to banker of this city, if he would cure ninety-five out of 100 patients to be selected by the government. Dr. Fried-

WILSON'S WORD LEADING FACTOR

Free Tolls May Be Left to His Administration.

Newlands Wants Policy of United States Defined.

Root Amendment Comes Up for Hearing Today.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES. WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—President Wilson's attitude in Panama Canal tolls and free passage for American coastwise ships is expected to have an important bearing upon the Senate's action on the Root amendment proposing the repeal of the ships provision of the bill passed in August.

While the Democrats' platform advocated the repeal of the tolls to coastwise vessels, a number of leaders in the anti-free passage fight think some Democrats are willing to vote for the repeal of the tolls in order that the subject may be left open until Wilson takes office.

The Root amendment will be taken up by the Senate Committee on Commerce tomorrow. It is probable that other hearings will be given to advocates and opponents of the provision.

While the advocates of the amendment do not count upon having enough votes in the committee to report it favorably, the proposal will come before the Senate either through a minority report or upon the demand of some Democrats.

The no-toll provision passed the Senate by a large majority. During the passage of the bill, a number of Democrats charged the amendment with the purpose of establishing the principle that the tolls on American vessels should be charged against foreign ships.

Under the Newlands bill the cost of canal operation charged to foreign shipping would be proportionate to the amount of foreign tonnage passing through the waterway.

Teague of the Standard Oil Company, for alleged criminal violation of the Sherman act, are believed to have reached New York by this time. The fact that they have not yet been served with warrants indicates that the Attorney-General has directed that they, like the original warrants, be withheld until he is satisfied that the government has sufficient evidence to sustain a case in Texas.

CHARTS DANGEROUS ROCK.

Mariners to Be Warned by Hydrographic Office of Reef Discovered by Hannibal Near Central America.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Mariners are to be warned by the navy hydrographic office of the presence of a dangerous rock just discovered by the surveying ship Hannibal as she was proceeding to her working grounds on the east coast of Central America.

In view of the approaching completion of the Panama Canal the work of the Hannibal along the Central American coast is considered of high importance. When her work is finished correct geographical positions of several points on the coast will have been established and light-houses, beacons and buoys will be constructed. At the present time, almost all of the navigation aids are maintained by private firms.

The work plotted out for the Hannibal from Cape Gracias a Dios to Porto Bello will occupy her about ten years if she does it alone. The Navy Department hopes to put out the Lemniscas to assist the Hannibal and thereby hasten the completion of the surveys.

BRITISH POSTMASTER-GENERAL REFUSES REQUEST.

Agreement for a Chain of Wireless Stations Is to Stand for the Present—Newspaper Man Explains Why He Believes that Company Took an Unfair Advantage.

(By Atlantic Cable and by Federal Wire) LONDON, Feb. 6.—[Special Dispatch.] The Postmaster-General has refused the Marconi Company the request that the agreement for a chain of wireless stations be regarded as no longer in effect.

W. R. Lawson, the financial journalist, giving evidence before the Marconi Select Committee, denied that in the articles he had written, there was any intention to suggest that the Cabinet ministers had been guilty of improper conduct. He thought the fact that Godfrey Isaacs, managing director of the Marconi Company, was a brother to Sir Rufus Isaacs, the Attorney-General, gave the company an unfair advantage over its competitors. He did not suggest that the Attorney-General took a part in the negotiations.

CHARGES WIFE WITH BIGAMY.
Photographer Says She Married Another While He Was in Bermuda Taking Pictures of Wilson.

(By Federal (Wireless) Line to the Times) WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Feb. 6.—[Special Dispatch.] While James W. Morse, a photographer, in the employ of a New York newspaper, was in Bermuda taking snapshots of President-elect Wilson, his girl-wife assumed the name of Edna May Williams and married Harry Duvall, an employee at the Washington navy yard, according to a petition for an absolute divorce filed today.

Morse charges that prior to his wife's alleged bigamous marriage she deserted their child at Atlantic City, leaving a note pinned to it saying: "Life is too short to try to bring up a baby."

MAY DEPORT MARIE SUESTANS.
Immigration Authorities Considering Case of French Girl Recently Named in Los Angeles Divorce.

(By Federal (Wireless) Line to the Times) NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Feb. 6.—[Special Dispatch.] The Federal immigration officials are considering today the question of deporting 18-year-old Marie Rita Suestans, who was brought to New York a year ago by Charles Victor Hall, the oil multimillionaire. Mrs. Hall, the millionaire's wife, recently got a divorce in Los Angeles, naming the French girl as co-respondent. When the case was tried it came out that Hall had been designated as the girl's guardian by her mother.

After the girl had been passed by the immigration authorities the three went to a hotel. The next day the mother started on a return voyage to France.

UNION ISLAND AT STAKE.
Deal for Parcel of Reclaimed Land Near Stockton Results in Suit Against Prospective Buyers.

(By Direct Wire to the Times) STOCKTON, Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A deal involving 3196 acres of reclaimed land on Union Island west of this city and valued at $317,000 came to an abrupt end today when Louis I. Cowgill, acting as trustee for the owner, Frank H. Johnson, filed a suit against L. Friedlander, F. K. Houston and the Mercantile Trust Company of San Francisco. On the same day Cowgill sought to repudiate his contract to sell the property to Friedlander and Houston and to collect $115,000 which the latter had deposited with the trust company as evidence of good faith.

In an agreement made last fall, the defendants were to purchase the property for $317,000 under certain conditions. Cowgill declares that all the conditions have been performed but that the San Francisco capitalists refuse to pay the purchase price. The bank is made a defendant because of its alleged refusal to pay over the $115,000.

CUT DUTIES ON MICA.
House Committee on Revision Agrees Upon Reductions on Asphalt, China and Glassware.

(By A. P. Night Wire to the Times) WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—The majority of the House Committee on Ways and Means, who are framing tariff revision legislation for the coming extra session of Congress, agreed today upon radical reductions in the customs duties on mica, asphalt and various kinds of chinaware and glassware of the cheaper varieties.

Schedule "C," the big iron and steel schedule, which ranks with the textile schedule, as a storm center of Democratic revision plans, was passed over until Monday because of the absence of Representative A. Mitchell Palmer, the Pennsylvania member of the committee, whose State largely is affected by the metal schedule.

BLAMES BANKERS FOR WAR.
Financiers Can Stop Conflicts Says W. Morgan Shuster—Ex-President Hayes Harps on Panama.

(By A. P. Night Wire to the Times) NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—"When the men who control the credits of the world say war must cease, it will cease," W. Morgan Shuster, of the National City Bank, and former Treasurer-General of the Federal government, declared tonight at the twenty-fifth anniversary dinner of the New York Chapter of the American Institute of Banking.

Gen. Reyes, former President of Colombia, advised that a beginning should be made by seeing "that justice is done Colombia in the matter of its righteous claims connected with the Panama affair."

BRASS BAND FOR WILSON.
Princeton Undergraduates Will March to Washington for President-elect on Trip to Inauguration.

(By A. P. Night Wire to the Times) PRINCETON (N. J.), Feb. 6.—A brass band of more than thirty pieces composed entirely of Princeton undergraduates, will head the Nassau student delegation which will escort President-elect Woodrow Wilson to Washington on the eve of his inauguration. THE CITY AND ENVIRONS.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Reception to Pastor.

A reception in honor of the third anniversary of the pastorate of Dr. J. Whitcomb Brouwer will be held in Berean Hall, Temple Auditorium, tonight. There will be a fine program of speeches, music and amusing stunts.

For Canadian Visitors.

A special concert by the Long Beach Municipal Band in honor of visiting Canadians, will be given at the Auditorium, Long Beach, at 8 o'clock this evening. Free tickets for reserved seats may be had by applying at the Canadian Pacific Railway office, No. 708 South Spring street, House in Ashes.

The one-story frame residence of O. S. Fletcher, No. 2426 East Washington street, was destroyed by fire at 10 o'clock last night. The loss, building and contents, is about $1500, covered by insurance. Fletcher was asleep in the front part of the house when the blaze started from an unknown cause in the kitchen.

Clark Will Be There.

Ex-Senator Clark was so much improved in condition yesterday that, assisted by his secretary, he attended the large and important meeting that had accumulated during the two days he was confined to his bed. His son, W. A. Clark, Jr., announced yesterday that his father will attend the dedication of the Mary Andrew Clark Memorial Home at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Reception to Mrs. Coulter.

Members and friends of the Broadway Christian Church tendered a reception last night to Mrs. B. P. Coulter, widow of the late pastor, and Mrs. Garvin, his sister. The reception was the first of a series of social evenings planned by the congregation. In the receiving line were Mrs. Coulter, Mrs. Boone, Mrs. S. W. Johnson, Mrs. J. J. Mayers and Fannie Collins. Temple Band Brunch.

"Faithful and Free" is the theme upon which Dr. S. Hecht will discuss at the regular weekly Sabbath service at the Temple, this evening at 8 o'clock. Edwin House will render a baritone solo from Matthew. Tomorrow (Saturday) morning at 10:30 o'clock Dr. Hecht's pulpit will be occupied by Dr. G. Deutsch, professor of history at the Hebrew Union College at Cincinnati. The children's Sabbath service will be held as usual at 9:45 a.m., tomorrow.

Says He'll Prove It.

Charles Hill, a safe manufacturer and expert of No. 432 South Spring street, has the courage of his convictions. In order to demonstrate that he will stuff his newly-invented fire-proof bond-container as full of paper money and valuable securities as it will hold and build a big bonfire under the whole, also under the Garvinna bridge at Avenue Twenty next Saturday afternoon. He expects to heat the galvanised iron exterior of the contrivance to a white heat, but says the papers will not even be scorched, this by reason of a patent chemical lining which generates carbon dioxide under heat and prevents combustion in the interior.

Re-Judge McKinley, Willis Booth and James A. Fosbury will deliver the orations at the memorial services in honor of the late George H. Stewart at the Masonic Temple at 2:30 o'clock Sunday-afternoon. Perry W. Weidner is to preside at the services, while the prelate of Los Angeles commandery, K.T., will have charge of the religious services. Music will be furnished by the Scottish Rite choir. The urn containing the ashes will not be at the temple, and it is the desire of the widow that no flowers be sent. Southern California commandery companies of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion and the Sunset Club are to attend in bodies, while the Chamber of Commerce, of which Stewart was a former president, will be represented by the directors.

CROWN SCHOOL-DAY ROMANCE.

Couple Who Were Very Good Friends in Chicago Meet Here and Wedding Bells Soon Ring. School-days together in Chicago—his introduction here to her father—a dinner invitation—eyes and hearts across the table—recognition—moonlight, palm trees, etc.—proposal—engagement announced for June wedding—elopement Tuesday night—search by her parents Wednesday—the newweds' return yesterday.

These are episodes from a few of the chapters of the story of Gladys Edna Spates, 25 years old, daughter of Dr. Edwin Spates of Pasadena, and Clifford Frank Knapp, 15, auditor of the Kelly-Clarke Company of this city. They were married by Father Conaty at St. Vibiana's Cathedral. Their love began fifteen years ago when Clifford carried Gladys apples and candy in the school they attended at Chicago. It continued through high school. There was then a tacit understanding. But he had the world before him; she, a finishing school. He followed Horace Greaser's advice, and came West. She went to college and added art and music to her attainments.

Knapp was introduced to Dr. Spates last fall. The old gentleman liked the straight young man and the "punch" in his conversation. He invited him to dine with his family Thanksgiving Day. The rest followed in natural sequence.

When Knapp asked the doctor the doctor said "gladly," but he made the usual paternal request—asked them to wait a while. June, not a month longer, they said. The "punch" the doctor had noted and admired in the young man's conversation lies deeper than in his words. It is natural with him to execute his ideas when his fancy dictates.

It dictated Tuesday. That night Miss Spates tossed her old calling cards away and ordered some engraved and charged to Mrs. Clifford Knapp.

PERILOUS FEAT.

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 6.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Lieut. L. E. Goodyear performed a perilous aerial feat today. He left the army aviation camp on North Island this morning for a thirty-mile run for a military air pilot's license. When at an altitude of 4000 feet he arrived off La Jolla, about sixteen miles from the starting point, his cylinder began to rattle. Fearing the escaping gas, he stopped the engine and made a glide of 4000 feet to the ground. Then repairing the machine, he flew back to North Island, completing the test.

collar with the choicest in literature. It is just as easy to teach them choice passages of poetry as doggerel. She ridiculed the idea of loading the mind of the child with trashy and useless rhymes when the best in literature might just as well be substituted.

Bible a Model of Letter Writing.
John H. Hunter of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, addressed the women of the Presbyterian Church at their monthly meeting last Monday in the interests of foreign missions. He took for his topic the letter of St. Paul to the Philippians, which he declared is a model of a courteous, Christian letter. Read in the light of all the circumstances under which the apostle was written, it is pointed out that it is a remarkable example of courtesy and tact in the difficult task of writing a letter on a most difficult subject.

From Ye Olden Time.
Handed down from those far days of grandmother's bombazine must have been the patterns used in those new silks just opened in that Broadway house which is noted for fine weaves.

Wash-Clutch or Sponges?
Although the Turkish wash-rag has been means lost its vogue in the realm of clothes and head-wear, it now has a rival in the luffa sponge. The newest street hats, seen in a popular Broadway store, are made from luffa fiber. One especially noted in a fancy shop had for its sole trimming a cerise ribbon handkerchief, and the whole was encased in a luffa and was finished at one side with a cerise enameled buckle.

Command the Situation.
A black shining plume, a glint of his race, bears the meaning full title—"Cavort Chief." It is a Goliath among feathers and deserves a non de plume which designates supreme.

WOMEN'S WORK. WOMEN'S CLUBS.
BY SIDNEY FORD.

The gospel of good literature for everybody was preached by Prof. Maria Sanford in her address before the Hollywood Woman's Club on Wednesday. Beside being an authority on history and literature, this little woman with a saint-like face, crowned with snow-white hair, is a dramatic reader of excellent ability, and, in the course of her lecture, she recited several poems—one of Kipling's which she gave with great expression, and another of Oliver Holmes—"The Broomstick Train," which was inspired when, at 85 years of age, he went down to Boston for his first sight of a trolley car.

"History is a record of great lives, and literature is a record of great thoughts," observed Prof. Sanford. "Real literature must have beauty of form as well as conveyance of fact; doggerel is not poetry. There is an aristocracy in words; some have the very essence of beauty—as 'barry,' 'sultan,' but who could make poetry out of such words as 'got,' or 'stop'?" An interesting characteristic of the heightened diction of poetry is the use of compound words, for instance, "the aurea-studded sky." Literature is the expression of the highest form of English—the greatest the world has ever known—higher than the Italian or Greek, because the English-speaking people have been a people who have thought, and loved, and struggled, and wrought, and it is the heroism of men and women that brings great and beautiful thoughts.

To prove this, Prof. Sanford quoted from Longfellow and Tennyson, from Lowell and Burns. She urged upon mothers and teachers the necessity of making the children familiar with the choicest in literature.

RAINFALL NOT EVENLY SPREAD.

YITFUD SHOWERS FALL IN MORE FAVORABLE SECTIONS.

Central Avenue from Slauson to Thirtieth Street was inundated and Along Pico the Gutter Became Miniature Rivers for a Short Time—Rain in Country Was Light.

Los Angeles was visited by a freak rain and thunder storm yesterday afternoon. The downpour and accompanying commotion from the heavens came as a gutter-drowning deluge in the University, Highland Park and other districts, but for blocks in other sections the precipitation was in comparison remarkably light, a gentle patter.

While busy shopping crowds on lower Broadway were caught in the showers through farther north on the same street were not even discomforted by the drizzle which sprayed them and were not aware of the weight of the storm elsewhere.

In the Pico street district gutters became miniature rivers while at First street not enough rain fell to form even small pools in them. Along South Olive street, Grand avenue and paralleling highways south of Seventh street for many blocks the rain collected in streams three feet wide along the curbs.

West Jefferson, South Vermont avenue and better known thoroughfares in the University district received the heaviest downfall, although Highland Park was the scene of a rain almost as heavy. The several miles intervening between the two localities got but a smattering of rain.

Central avenue, from Slauson to Thirtieth, looked as if the ocean had been moved up there. At Jefferson and Central the rushing water could be seen and felt as it poured over the curbs, and flooded the floors of several business houses. Small boys had the time of their lives with their miniature "navy" of boards and hastily constructed drednaughts, these floating off down Central when workmen waded in and let the pent-up flood water through the piles of debris.

The total precipitation for the storm up to midnight was .36 inch, which made the total for the season to midnight 2.15 inches. A gentle rain was falling at midnight and the forecast for today is "showery weather."

MAKES DEATH SURE.

Dependent Young Man Uses Gas and Bullet to End His Life—Hit and Out of Employment.

Ill, out of employment, and with only 25 cents left, E. F. DeConvent, 21 years old, went to his room in a boarding-house at No. 541 South Hope street, turned on the gas and shot himself in the right side of the head with a revolver that he had carefully wrapped with bandages to muffle the noise. The body was found at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by a chambermaid.

Very little was known at the boarding-house about the young man's past history or his family connections. He had been in the city two months and had spent most of the time in an unsuccessful quest for employment. It is said that he was married, but separated from his wife, who is a resident of this city. A woman supposed to be his wife called at the boarding-house to see DeConvent two days before he killed himself. The man, who was a happy married life is supposed to have contributed toward the despondency that caused him to end his life.

Coroner Hartwell began an investigation to learn the address of the supposed wife or other relatives and friends. The body was taken to Bureau Lockup's undertaking rooms.

HAND ROCK HIS LOVER.

Man Without Home or Business Bitten and Robbed on First Street.

The world was anything but funny to Otto Mettler, who has no residence or business when a man stepped up to him last night and said: "What are you laughing at me for?"

Mettler started to relate his grief over many things that were paining him when the stranger retorted that Mettler couldn't laugh at him, and with two friends began to beat Mettler. The assault occurred on First street between Main and Los Angeles streets. Mettler lost $11, all the money he had in his credit, and was severely bruised and battered.

GUESTS FLEE IN FEAR.

Fire in a two-room out-house in the rear of the Hotel Lucas, No. 1153 West Seventh street, drove the guests of the hotel in flight to the street during the rain last night and caused several hundred dollars damage. The building, owned by Norton and Lippman, was almost completely destroyed. Cause of the blaze is unascertained.

The Darrow Trial

mission to extend this to a later date on questions relating to the $4000 Franklin swore he received from Darrow on the morning of November 23, 1911, for the bribery of Lockwood.

AS TO HARRIMAN.

"Did you get money from Job Harriman?" asked Darrow.

"I think we got some from him on two occasions," replied the witness.

"One sum was for the investigation of the grand jury and the other for the investigation of trial jurors."

"Well, didn't you ask Harriman for money on various occasions?"

"I don't think so."

"You were frequently in Harriman's office, were you not?"

"No, sir, most of my business was with Clarence Darrow."

The turn of the case into its larger aspect, as an alleged general conspiracy to defeat the ends of justice was taken when Ford interrogated Franklin concerning money he received from Darrow in November, 1911.

"If we start that inquiry we will open up the entire case," said former Judge Powers, who was on the bench at the time the Darrow case is already adjudicated.

The court temporarily overruled the objection to see where the question of Asst. Dist. Atty. Ford would lead.

Franklin then said he received $4000 from Darrow on November 23, the day on which the witness was arrested. The defense gave leave to recall Franklin and subject him to further examination on this point.

George N. Lockwood, a taxman in the McNamara case, but never drawn into the jury box, was the next witness. Before he was examined numerous objections were taken by the defense counsel to his examination.

LOCKWOOD'S TESTIMONY.

In response to questions put by former Judge Gray, Lockwood told how Franklin came to his house near Corvina one night in November, 1911, and asked to speak with him.

Lockwood said he promised to meet Franklin in town on some day the following week. He visited the detective's office in the Chamber of Commerce building.

"George, I want you to serve on the McNamara jury," said Franklin. I replied: "That is a bad way of getting me on the jury." Franklin then asked if he could talk in confidence and I replied he could," said Lockwood.

"He told me we were getting old and never saved much out of the McNamara case, and that there was an opportunity for us to get $100 down and $3000 more if I served on the McNamara jury and held out for acquittal."

Lockwood said he made no definite promise but arranged to have Franklin call at his ranch November 11. The witness narrated the talk and said the next day or so he went to see Capt. Fredericks and told him what Franklin offered him.

"In your conversations with Franklin, were the names of other jurors mentioned?" asked Gray.

"This question was objected to as leading."

"We have no fear as to Your Honor's rulings," said Gray.

"That is a queer insinuation to make," remarked former Judge Powers.

TOLD OF RAIN.

"What is that?" asked Judge Conley, sharply. The various comments of the lawyers were read. He smiled and mentioned Gray to proceed. Lockwood was permitted to say that Franklin told him a Grand Army man on the jury was already bribed. Lockwood said that was the only Grand Army man on the jury he knew.

"Did you tell Capt. Fredericks about that man?"

"I did."

Lockwood then told about Franklin's last visit to his house when he promised $500 down and $1500 at the end of the trial. The witness said there was some discussion about a suitable holder of the $1500 and Franklin suggested asking Darrow.

This was the time when detectives were concealed in the barn and around the tank-house at Lockwood's ranch, unknown to Franklin.

The examination reached this point when the time came for adjournment. After the jury was excused the court took up the question, further evidence tending to show a conspiracy. The prosecutors promised it would be forthcoming.

This is the first direct statement that testimony to show there was a general conspiracy to bribe jurors and witnesses will be introduced by the state.

The case will be resumed at 10 o'clock this morning.

DROP CRIMINAL CHARGES.

Police Say Woman Who Caused Young Husband's Arrest Has Had Money Returned.

Criminal charges against Robert Marsh, whose aged bride had him arrested here on her allegation that he had taken $9000 from her a few days after their marriage and decamped, have been dropped, and the woman released, according to the police.

It is understood the young husband returned a considerable part of the money and $500 worth of jewelry.

Married in San Francisco after a brief acquaintance, the woman and her young husband were on their way to Portland to take a steamer to Australia when he disappeared. He was located in Los Angeles. Although the case was in the hands of the Portland police, when the woman was sought in Oregon, it was learned that she, too, had come to Los Angeles and requisition papers would not be asked.

WHERE'S THE BODY?

Authorities Investigating Strange Disappearance of Corps—Murder Report Scouted as Fiction.

Pasquale Leon reported to the police yesterday that he had found Antonio Gless, a Mexican, lying in a pool of blood at his home, No. 404 Castellar street, and that he believed Gless had been robbed of $300 known to have been in his possession. The police visited the house and found the blood, but not the man.

Detective Rico learned that Gless had become sick, and was told he died and was removed to an undertaking establishment. The police were unable to locate the undertaker and the Coroner met with no better success. The idea of murder is scouted, but the authorities are at a loss to account for the disappearance of the body.

THIS HOME MIXTURE

QUICKEST RELIEF KNOWN FOR SEVERE COLDS AND COUGHS

The following comes from a prominent doctor and is said to be the best and quickest prescription known to medical science for colds and coughs. "From your drugget get two ounces of Glycerine and half an ounce of Globe Pine Compound (Concentrated Pine). Take these two ingredients home and put them into a half pint of good whiskey. Shake it well. Take one to two teaspoonsful after each meal and at bedtime. Smaller doses to children according to age." Be sure to get only the genuine Globe Pine Compound (Concentrated Pine). Each half ounce bottle comes in a tin screwtop sealed case. Any drugget has it on hand or will quickly get it from his wholesale house. There are many cheaper preparations, but it don't pay to experiment; this treatment is certain cure. This has been published here for past six winters by the Globe Pharmaceutical Laboratories of Chicago and thousands say it is wonderful.

THESE TWO HAVE SHORT HANDLES.

FORTEVILLE, Feb. 6.—

Emil Ann, who is supposed to possess the shortest name to be found in the New York directory, is a had second when compared to a resident of the Santa district whose entire baptismal name is simply J. J. Ek.

Ek is thus possessed of a name only half as long as that of the New Yorker, and it is entirely probable that Ek takes first rank in his particular class in the entire United States.

The J in Ek's name is all of his given name—just J. He is a Scandinavian, according to his own story, and being born in a community where there were some scores of families of similar names, his parents decided that they would give him a title which would distinguish him for all time from the O'Shaughnessys, the Chomondseys and others of the cosmopolitan of America, for which country J. Ek was early destined.

Cause and Effect.

NEED ALL HELP THEY CAN GET.

CITRUS GROWERS SEEK FUNDS FOR EXPERIMENTS.

Ask Legislature to Appropriation Full Requisition for State Agricultural College to Be Used to Advantage in Developing Fruit Industries in the South.

Urging citrus growers and shippers and commercial bodies to use their best efforts with their Assemblymen and Senators to secure the maximum appropriations for the extension of agriculture investigations in California and the maintenance of the College of Agriculture, General Manager Powell of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange, as chairman of the Committee on University Extension, sent out a circular letter yesterday setting forth that favorable committee action by the Legislature does not necessarily mean that appropriations will not be cut.

"From a personal examination of the estimates submitted by the university," Powell states, "I know that these amounts are the minimum required to extend the investigations in California and to maintain the College of Agriculture. It is a common practice in presenting bills to the Legislature to ask for more than the Legislature is expected to grant, but in the presentation of these bills the College of Agriculture has asked for the exact amount that is necessary and no reductions can be made without serious injury to the plans which the university has laid out."

The recent disaster from the frost epidemic has made it imperative that a group of high-grade specialists be permanently upon our agricultural industries and I would urge that you take this matter up immediately with your Assemblymen and Senators for the need of our agricultural industries."

Powell further urges that Senator Ed K. Strohbridge, chairman of the Finance Committee, and Hon. W. F. Chandler, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of the Assembly, be petitioned to use their good offices in seeing that the appropriations are allowed.

One bill asks for $214,389 for the maintenance and support of the College of Agriculture for the next two years, including an appropriation of $157,500 for the maintenance of experimental work now under way in the citrus belt. In addition, Senate bill No. 297 provides $40,000 for the purchase of land for a citrus experiment station, Senate bill No. 25, 1929, $80,000 for the construction of a laboratory building for the citrus work, and Senate bill No. 51, $25,000 for the construction of a residence, barn and necessary small buildings for the station. All these bills have been favorably acted on by the special committees and are now in the hands of the Committee on Finance of the Senate and the Committee on Ways and Means of the Assembly.

WILL LAY CORNERSTONE.

Pomona Will Observe the Occasion When Work of Construction Starts on New Hospital.
POMONA, Feb. 6.—The formal laying of the cornerstone of the new building of the Pomona Valley Hospital will occur tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the site of the structure east of North Street, opposite the junction of the Claremont and Los Angeles Electric lines. There will be short addresses by Mr. Charles G. Neely, Dr. Frank W. Thomas and E. E. Kelly. The hospital building is being constructed of reinforced concrete and will cost when completed and equipped, over $50,000.

NEWS BRIEFS.
The next municipal election will be held here on Monday, April 1, when there will be elected the following officers: Mayor, two Councilmen to represent the Second and Third Wards, City Clerk and Auditor, City Treasurer, Tax Collector and Assessor, City Attorney and police judge. The positions of all aspirants for office must be filed with the City Clerk by February 24. The terms of Mayor Matthews and Councilmen Vandegrift and Hander will expire.

Those engaged upon re-surveying and tabulating the large number of report blanks secured when the religious census was taken here last Friday are completing a large task. It is estimated that there were 10,000 report blanks gathered by the canvassers in the twenty-six districts of the city. The result will be ready tomorrow.
Pomona's big booster day this year will be celebrated on Saturday, February 13, when there will be special priced sales in many of the stores, the appearance of Glenn Martin, the well-known aviator, in a number of high aerial stunts, a large banquet in the evening at the Armory and numerous other entertaining features. All of the local business men and the civic bodies are planning to boost for the success of the celebration and the City Council has given the affair its official sanction. The Pacific Electric Railway will run special trains and furnish extra accommodations and from the war local enthusiasts are taking hold of the arrangements for the affair. It is bound to be a success.
Clyde Doyle, assistant superintendent, and Miss Bertha Barnard of the California George Junior Republic southeast of here on the Chico ranch, were here yesterday to address a meeting of the Pomona Auxiliary of the Republic and some invited guests at the home of Mrs. William A. Fox on Columbia avenue. They told of the growth of the Republic and the progress of the work there. Superintendent Gerald Waterhouse of the Republic also addressed a meeting of the Southside Child's Study Circle at the Tenth-street kindergarten here.

BRAWLEY.
BRAWLEY, Feb. 6.—John J. Elmore, son of J. E. Elmore, who is still in his teens, is an example of what a boy with vim and energy can do. Young John, who has been farming a ranch belonging to Charles O. Goodwin, in the past two years has accumulated over $5000 by adhering closely to ranching. John left for Los Angeles the first of this month, where he will enter the Los Angeles High School to remain until he is graduated. From the L. A. High young Elmore will take a course of law at Harvard.

Leo Campion of Chicago, a box-car tourist, was found dead on the Southern Pacific track near Blaisdell station Monday. The body of Campion was horribly mangled. A coroner's inquest developed the fact that Campion jumped from the train, struck a mound of earth and fell back under the car wheels. Campion's relatives in Chicago were notified and his body was held here at their request.

Claude Lockwood of Portland, Or., who was run over by a Southern Pacific train at Boring and had both legs cut off, passed away Tuesday from the effects of the shock.
One of the largest individual shipments of hay ever made from Imperial Valley is now under way from Brawley, as 100 cars of hay will be shipped from the De Mott ranch by the manager, Claude Dalbey. The shipment comprises 1000 tons, or 100 carloads, making two full trains.

HARBOR LINES AT NEWPORT.

Final Hearing by the War Department Has Been Set for Next Monday Morning.
NEWPORT BEACH, Feb. 6.—The final hearing by the War Department in the matter of establishing harbor lines in Newport Bay will be held in Col. McKinstry's office in the Central building next Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The point of contention seems to be the width of the channel between Fort Orange and what is known as the upper bay, a distance of about three miles. In the map submitted by the War Department at a previous meeting a channel was outlined varying in width from 100 to 700 feet. The comparatively wide channel is very distasteful to James Irvine, who owns the land on both sides of the channel and efforts have been made to have the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce recommend a narrower channel.

NEWS BRIEFS.
The Board of Trustees of the city has started preliminary work to have a paved road constructed from Santa Ana River bridge to Main street, Balboa, a distance of about three miles. The road will be made with concrete base and asphalt binder and will connect at the bridge with the county good road soon to be constructed between this city and Santa Ana. The Trustees laid over until next Monday the bids on the erection of a distributing system for light and power, as a contract for the same has not yet been signed up with the big power companies. The city will then enter into direct competition with the present light company, permission to do so having been obtained from the State Railroad Commission.
A bond election has been called by the local school board to vote on a proposition of issuing $15,000 in bonds to buy the other half of the block occupied by the new brick schoolhouse recently constructed. The election will take place February 24.

ORANGE.

ORANGE, Feb. 6.—Back of a bill introduced into the Legislature yesterday by State Senator J. N. Anderson lies the proposal to erect and maintain at Orange a school for orphans and crippled children. Anderson's bill provides for an appropriation of $25,000 with which to buy a site for the school. The bill was introduced at the request of the Commercial Club of Orange, which had assurances that if the site is purchased by the state the school will be built and maintained by a fund to be donated by some person or persons whose names are known here probably to no one but Dr. D. F. Royer, a prominent physician and citizen of this place. Dr. Royer stated to the Commercial Club that at this stage of the proceedings he is not at liberty to give the name of the backer or backers, who will make the donations with the provision that the school be for orphans and crippled children.

Mr. and Mrs. Bashford do not know exactly how they escaped injury, as they were apparently tossed free of the car before it struck the ground, and at the same time when it was so much to the ground to give them a very short fall, and they fell clear of the machine.

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR.

Mrs. John W. Gates, widow of the multimillionaire banker whose spectacular ways earned for him the appellation of "Bet-you-a-million" Gates, and mother of Charles G. Gates now in the city, arrived in Pasadena yesterday in her private car. She is accompanied by her brother, E. J. Baker of St. Clair, Ill., and a friend, Mrs. C. H. Goodwin, both of Pasadena. Mrs. Gates' private secretary, two maids and a chauffeur, are at the Maryland, where one of the largest banquets has been taken. Mrs. Gates yesterday said: "I find it a lovely place, as I always have, but I am very sorry for the unfortunate loss of oranges by frost."

"I have come from Colorado Springs, having gone there from New York. It is my intention to remain here about two weeks, to visit my son."

Mrs. Gates politely but firmly declined to discuss the public issue on general affairs. She said that the suffrage question does not interest her, and that she was the wife of a woman in general is concerned, she believes they are getting on quite as well as they ever did.

"I am not interested in the suffrage question," she said, "and do not care to express myself on the subject. If one wants to take an interest in it, why let one take an interest in it."

SERIOUS CHARGE.
George A. Daakam, a local photographer, who has been prominently connected with the Young Men's Christian Association, fraternal organizations and the First Methodist Church, and who lives at No. 353 North Lake avenue, was taken into custody yesterday afternoon by Chief of Police Wood and locked up in the City Jail. He is alleged to have committed an offense against his 6-year-old daughter.

Deputy District Attorney Richardson accompanied Chief Wood to the Daakam house when the arrest was made and the Chief stated last night that a complaint will be sworn to today. The prisoner will also probably be arraigned today.

CITY BRIEFS.

Dr. R. P. Swearington, president of the Odd Fellows Temple Association, announced yesterday that more than $15,000 of the stock of the Odd Fellows Temple Association had been bought and paid for and that more than $10,000 more has been subscribed, thus assuring an early start on the Odd Fellows temple that is to be built at the corner of Green street and South Fair Oaks avenue.

AUTOMOBILE MAKES PLUNGE.

Los Angeles Man Runs Machine Off Bridge.

Strikes Water Main and Fountain Creates Flood.

Widow of John W. Gates Arrives in Pasadena.

PASADENA, Feb. 7.—One of the most unusual and miraculous automobile accidents that has yet taken place in Southern California occurred at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon on the Foothill boulevard, between Pasadena and Monrovia. As he loosened his grip on the steering wheel in order to assist his wife, who was putting on a wrap, the car of W. C. Bashford, an old man who lives at No. 708 Ardmore drive, Los Angeles, plunged through the railing of a bridge over the Los Angeles River, a deep arroyo, toward both of the occupants, practically unhurt, into the brush. Had they been stunned, or slipped down by the car, they would have been drowned, for one of the horns of the frame punctured an eighteen-inch water main, bringing the town of Monrovia and a geyser spouted up and within a few minutes produced a small river.

Mrs. Bashford was not hurt at all, and her husband's injuries are limited to a few slight cuts and a sprained wrist. Both remained in the bank of the arroyo without assistance. Mrs. Bashford was taken home by a neighbor's car. The wreck of the automobile to this city. Several men went out with a truck for the wreck, but when they arrived they found it standing squarely on its nose, about knee-deep in water, while the car was on the bank. The car was still spouting skyward and the entire vicinity of the accident. The workers made an unsuccessful attempt to extricate the disabled machine from its place in the arroyo bed and returned to Pasadena for more ropes and apparatus with which to hoist it up, as well as four wheels with which to endeavor to roll it into town. At a late hour last night the car was rolled into town.

WOMAN DIES SUDDENLY.

Wife of Monrovia Stricken With Cerebral Hemorrhage Succumbs After a Few Minutes Illness.
MONROVIA, Feb. 6.—Mrs. Ida Grant Morse, wife of C. H. Morse, while at work preparing supper at her home on East Line yesterday evening, was suddenly stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage, from which she died a short time later.

Up until the time of the stroke Mrs. Morse was apparently in the best of health, and was in the act of making some toast, when her daughter noticed something unusual in her mother's manner. Hastening to her side, she caught her in her arms. As Mrs. Morse sank upon a couch, she asked for a doctor, and almost immediately passed into unconsciousness, from which she could not be roused.

Mrs. Morse is survived by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Grant, and sister Mrs. J. H. Goodwin, both of Santa Ana; and her brother, Charles H. Grant, of Colorado Springs. Her immediate family consist of the widow, C. H. Morse and six children. They came to Monrovia about two and a half years ago from Santa Ana. Funeral services will be conducted at the residence at 10:00 o'clock tomorrow morning by the Rev. R. A. Vandera, followed by interment at 2:00 p.m. at Santa Ana.

BURBANK BURGLARY.

BURBANK, Feb. 6.—Burbank has had a burglary, the first one in years. The store of W. B. Walker was entered last night by means of a rear window and about $500 worth of goods taken. This included at least $200 worth of high-grade jewelry comprising rings, cuff buttons, watch fobs and charms. The burglar evidently understood jewelry, for he took only the better grades. He then fitted himself out with a pair of shoes, blue flannel shirt, sweater and hat, leaving his old No. 2 brogues (bearing stamp of J. E. Dayton & Co., Williamsport, Pa.) an olive flannel shirt and ragged gray sweater (also a little bent stem pipe) on one of the rear benches. The burglar also took other sweaters, shirts, shoes and notions. Los Angeles officers were notified of the burglary.

ANIMAL TAMERS TO WED IN CAGE.

LONG BEACH, Feb. 6.—An event out of the ordinary will be staged tomorrow night at the Bentley Grand Theater, following the first show, when Capt. Callis, who has an act with a cage of lions, will be united in marriage in the cage of his pets with Princess Cecilia, owner of a troupe of leopards, who appeared here three months ago.

It develops that the two have long been sweethearts, but professional rivalry kept them apart until now. Yesterday Callis secured consent of the manager for the wedding on the stage among the lions. Princess Cecilia is in San Francisco, but will arrive tomorrow evening in time for the ceremony.

All day Capt. Amest, the manager of the theater, has been trying without success to secure a minister for the job. As a last contingency he has secured a justice of the peace, who will tie the knot. Saturday the two wild beast tanners will leave on a honeymoon trip to Honolulu.

will be awarded to the children making the best record.
Pandemic music lovers are looking forward with much pleasure to a recital to be given by Mrs. Lillian Nordica at the Hotel Maryland the night of the 18th inst. CAR WHEELS CUT HIS TROUSERS.

LONG BEACH MAN FLIES FROM DEATH ANGLE.
Thrown from Bicycle He Falls Under a Car, but Quick Work of Motorist Saves His Life—Injury of Complete Injured in Accident Has Not Been Fully Cleared.

LONG BEACH, Feb. 6.—The wit of Motorist Graham on the Redondo-avenue this morning saved Walter B. Joy, a pianist, a victim of a rather peculiar accident. Joy was on his way to work on a bicycle and was near the corner of Redondo and Atlantic avenues when the motorist car stopped to allow two school girls to alight. The car was stopped back to allow the girls to get off and the motorist was looking back at the girls when his wheel and rolled over with legs across the tracks.

The Eternal Waits Girl.

Mabel Berra.

Apparently just about to begin waiting eternally.

UP AND DOWN BROADWAY.

By "ZIP"

On this, it's good. Not Goodwin wants to play "Whisk" during his forthcoming engagement at the new Morocco Theater. But—see Oliver Morosco dislikes very much any Shakespearean production and has uttered the official "No."

Why all that of our great comedians aspire to play tragedy? Eddie Foy once wanted to play Hamlet, but he was not appraised until someone wrote him a burlesque on the Melancholy Dane, which made him so much money he forgot all about the real thing.

And more than that, since the recent benefit at the Burhan, when the unfortunates quartette very cleverly filled in all of the possible ways by singing sweet lullabies, Dave Hartford has got the disease and wants to study for grand opera.

And in this connection it might be noted that when Laurette Taylor appeared so successfully in comedy roles in Los Angeles, she absolutely refused to appear in "Barbarians," a Greek tragedy.

And all New York quite agree that Miss Taylor is the clearest of American comedienne—yet she played tragedy and, strange to say, to the complete satisfaction of Los Angeles and San Francisco audiences.

When Oliver Morosco saw Henry Brockbridge in New York, recently, that clever young comedian had a bundle under his arm.

Morosco asked him what it was and he replied: "A sketch based on 'The Hunchback of Notre Dame' in which I play the morbid hunchback." Can you beat it?

I would not be surprised to hear any day that one of our best leading women wants to play and sing George M. Cohan's role in "George Washington, Jr."

In the Pink, beginning Monday, there will appear a highly interesting series of stories from those behind the stage.

These will come from the stage machines and will be entitled "Why I Became a Stage Carpenter." Great stuff.

To get at rest a lot of futile guesses that have long been ventured in the theatrical world. William H. Crane, who comes to the Mason next week, has finally broken a long silence and given the inside reason for the operation of that once-famous team of Robert and Crane.

They were together for thirteen years and parted company in 1917. The solution of this mystery is like so many others, simple enough when the inside facts are given. Here they are:

Robert and Crane separated because they had to. They climbed up to fame together and reached their joint triumph in Brown Howard's comedy, "The Henrietta." This continued success made them both ambitious, but it was also their undoing, for they were unable to get a play to follow it.

They did not want to continue this comedy indefinitely. Any producer will solve the problem when it is pointed out that "The Henrietta" was one of those dramas of a life time which gave stars the fullest opportunities and in which both were able to shine to advantage.

It is hard enough to get a modern play to suit one star.

Imagine then the manifold tribulations of an author trying to make his story human and dramatic and at the same time balance the weight of historic values cleverly between two such distinct personalities as Stuart Robson and William H. Crane.

After vainly searching for a worthy successor of "The Henrietta," they were forced to give it up. They parted as stars, but remained the best of friends.

An idea of how much a production of an extravaganza costs might be estimated when it is known that Oliver Morosco yesterday ordered 3000 yards of sure linen of a very heavy grade and fireproofed for the forthcoming production of "The Tik-Tok Man of Oz" at the Majestic.

This, however, is only a small item when lumber, costumes, paints and salaries for carpenters, property men and artists are taken into consideration.

Louise Gunning left Los Angeles yesterday for New York, where she will play a short headline engagement in vaudeville at $1500 per week. Miss Gunning says she needs the money as she desires to improve her ranch at Sierra Madre.

She will return to Los Angeles in April to appear at the Morocco in the new play by Hayden Talbot and Louis Gotshall.

Mommas know that kind (managerial) hearts are more than corns—and that's why Mabel Berra, of "The Eternal Waits," isn't lost to the stage and lights and high D, and everything.

Honestly, this story ought to have slow music.

If you chance to meet a stout little German, wandering down Broadway, wearing a coronet and a broken-hearted smile, treat him kindly. For Mabel Berra's momma has scorned him completely.

Under the thirteenth palms of Vienna restaurants he wooed her, but—

Suffice it, he followed—her from Stockholm to Copenhagen, and threatened to follow her to America. And whether he did or not, is the mystery—and that's where the thrill comes in.

Mash-nuts are exotic-like grand opera and pais-de-fois-gas, and orchids and waxed mustaches and old masters and Devonshire cream, says Miss Berra.

And she ought to know, for her foreign start includes, besides the count, a visit to the White House, one Italian prince (damaged with smoke—two many cigarettes) and a perfectly new shiny English lord.

Dolly Castle, one of the cleverest singing soubrettes in America, was secured yesterday by Manager Morosco for "The Tik-Tok Man." She will appear as the Italia-Bow's daughter.

There seems to be some hitch regarding the engagement of Olga Black for this production. C. William Kolb, of Kolb and Dill fame, claims a three-year contract with the little lady, and has entered a protest against her playing with anyone else.

It is rumored that if negotiations are not consummated, that Manager Morosco will bring Dorothy Webb to Los Angeles to create the "trick" part.

In a recent interview with the New York Times, Manager Morosco was quoted as saying he liked to encourage young authors. Yesterday this manager received thirty-one manuscripts by mail and he picked out a reader, George Siegner, "just naturally faint."

Ferris Hartman will not appear at the Lyceum as soon as expected. He was prevailed upon to stop off at Honolulu for a week and pick up a little loose change.

Frank Stammers, who has been engaged to superintend the entire production of "The Tik-Tok Man," will arrive in Los Angeles a week from Monday, accompanied by ten of New York's prettiest ponies—all guaranteed to be splendid dancers with his singing voices—and other good qualities.

Phyllis Partington, now at the Mason, and Lily Langtry, to be at the Orpheum week after next, are cousins, but have never met. This hiatus of a week between their engagements in Los Angeles will be the nearest to getting together on their part in their several lives. Miss Partington is a California girl and Mrs. Langtry is of London, and their parts, though both are on the stage, have never crossed, in that the one is in opera and the other in the drama.

BROWN'S OLD KNEE TROUBLE RETURNS.

(BY A. P. MOORE WIRE TO THE TIMES) CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—Mordecai Brown, former star pitcher of the Chicago National League club, and now a member of the Cincinnati team, will have his right knee placed in a plaster cast today in the hope of curing an injury sustained last summer in adding to second base in a game at the west side park.

Examination of X-ray photographs of the joint shows that there is a gathering of water in the joint under the knee cap. The surgeon who has charge of the case hopes by use of the cast to draw water to pass away through pressure on the part. If this fails the knife will be resorted to. It is said that this will not be a serious operation and the pitcher has been assured that the joint will be put in shape before the season begins.

NUMBERS FOR PLAYERS.

PRINCETON (N. J.) Feb. 6.—(BY A. P. MOORE WIRE TO THE TIMES) Parke H. Davis, Princeton's representative on the Football Rules Committee, will advocate at the coming meeting of that body the adoption of a rule requiring numbers on the football team to wear, water to pass away through pressure on the part. If this fails the knife will be resorted to. It is said that this will not be a serious operation and the pitcher has been assured that the joint will be put in shape before the season begins.

WITH THE PHOTOPLAYERS.

THE Essanay Company, under the direction of Arthur Mackley, is finishing up a one-reel western picture bearing the title "A Western Girl's Romance." The leading characters in the cast are Virginia James, Gladys Friel, Mrs. Arthur Mackley, Mr. Hordman and the director himself.

Phillips Smalley and Lola Weber of the Rex company are producing a one-reel rural drama film in which they appear to advantage, supported by Harry Pollard and Miss Lois Howard.

The cast which appears in "Steam," the much-talked-of Kinescope production, is James Watts, Marshall Kaye; his sweetheart, Linda Griffith; his mother, Louise Dunlop; the King, Jack Livingston; George Stephenson, Master, Lester and Chirley Perley; his wife, Ella Hall, and his son, Master Stone.

Charles Manley, the Powers player who belongs to H. Matthews' Company, is not appearing in "The Rivals," which is being produced by H. Matthews, this week, as he is appearing under Parrell Macdonald, another Powers director.

Mack Bennett of the Keystone company, is the owner of a Fiat racer which has twice crossed the continent from San Francisco to New York. He thinks his car is a prize; but it is not safe to ask him about the prize.

Merry McRae, the Selig director, has studied with electric lights the automobile in which he and Miss Kathryn Williams will ride in the Photoplayer's parade Saturday night. Not willing to be outdone, Fred Mace, president of The Photoplayers, has rigged lights both inside and outside of the car in which he and Miss Mabel Normand will lead the parade.

The Keystone company has just finished a 1000-foot costume comedy in which Fred Mace appears as a king and Mack Bennett is seen as a "boob" peasant who is continually getting in bad.

Lincoln J. Carter, the Nestor director, is putting on "Flaming Arrow," a very difficult production, assisted by Jack O'Brien. His leading characters are Miss Bowman, Jack Kockler, Barney Furr and his assistant director, Jack O'Brien. There are also Indians, cowboys and several playing strong parts in the picture.

While working in Griffith Park yesterday, several members of the Essanay company, had a narrow escape. In the picture which was being made under the direction of

BEEN MARRIED HUNDRED TIMES.

HAS KILLED OVER A SCORE OF WICKED VILLAINS.

All in the Career of Moving Picture Leading Woman—Some of the Thrilling and Dangerous Feats that Miss Bessie Eytan Has Done Called Upon to Perform.

A moving picture leading lady seems to lead a strenuous life.

Miss Bessie Eytan, leading woman with the Selig Company, began her career at a photographer two years ago without any previous stage experience; and today is one of the most popular leading women in the motion picture profession.

Among some of the episodes of her career, Miss Eytan has had to fall off the back of a galloping horse, being presumably shot while riding at full speed; has crossed the desert on the back of a camel and has acted in a cage, alone, with the most ferocious of the many Selig lions.

During her film-making career, this young woman has played almost every nationality; and all the American types from the Bowery girl to the cultured lady. She has been married more than a hundred times; been beaten by many of her picture husbands, has died several times, taken the rail four times, has killed a score of wicked villains.

Miss Eytan has also received an offer from a San Francisco fight promoter to meet Tommy Murphy in a twenty-round fight in this city February 12. He states he has also received an offer to box Jack Britton of Joe Mandot in New Orleans in March, the exact date not being stated.

of film villains and been killed many times.

Among her daring feats, the screen actress has been called upon to dive off the bridge of steamers and sailing vessels, dive or be thrown off the roofs of castles, islands, has fallen or jumped from three and four-story windows and high precipices, been thrown into the ocean, and has battled with the waves while wearing her street clothes.

Miss Eytan has always been an athletic girl and an expert swimmer. She took up the profession on account of the outdoor life and the healthful exercises.

Wolcott says he has received an offer from a San Francisco fight promoter to meet Tommy Murphy in a twenty-round fight in this city February 12. He states he has also received an offer to box Jack Britton of Joe Mandot in New Orleans in March, the exact date not being stated.

driven down the mountain side at full Arthur Mackley, a stage coach with speed. One of the leading horses stumbled and the team ran into a mess of barbed wire. Fortunately none of the photoplayers were injured, but one of the horses was badly cut.

Marion Emmens, the 7-year-old photoplayer, is to start on his three hundred and sixty-fourth picture today under Director Matthews of the Powers company.

Charley Kessell learned to drive a perfectly sane automobile in the short period of one week and that machine is now being rebuilt as a result of a slow tour at seventy-seven miles an hour.

Director, David Wall of the Powers company has just finished the production of a one-reel comedy full of amusing situations. The title of the picture is "By the Curate's Aid." Mr. Morris appears as the Curate and Boots Wall as the girl in the case.

Fred Mace is a near purchaser of a "G" tone car. He has been with Fred Grundy on two demonstrations and has almost decided; but Henry "Pathe" Lehman says there is "Many a nip between the dip and the pin."

"The Downfall of Uria Snoop," a life picture produced by H. Matthews, is one full of action, in which Joe Burke, Mary Blakenore, Edith Bowdick and Miss Griffith appear as the leading characters. The action takes place around a young ladies' boarding school and is the final scene Uria Snoop is caught hanging from a window in a basket, very much compromised.

Edwin August of the Powers company has settled down on his chicken farm which has been christened by Richard Willis, "Forty-five minutes from Broadway." Mr. August's father and mother are here from the East on a visit at present.

Phillips Smalley, the Rex company director, is none other than the son of Samuel G. Smalley, the New York Tribune war correspondent of Civil War times.

RHINES-INGRAM MATCH. Bert Rhines, the Ohio pocket billiard champion, who is matched to play George Banks for the Coast championship, will tonight play a handicap game against Jack Ingram of St. Louis at the Majestic Anderson, No. 417 South Hill street. Rhines is to give Ingram fifty balls in 150, a handicap which is likely to force him up to his match speed.

MANDOT'S ILLNESS BAD FOR COFFROTH.

(BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINK TO THE TIMES.)

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Feb. 6.—(Special Dispatch.) The sudden illness of Joe Mandot, who was scheduled to box Harlem Tommy Murphy twenty rounds here on the afternoon of February 12, has left the local promoter without an opponent for Murphy.

Coffroth is endeavoring to get a suitable opponent, but so far he has been unsuccessful. He wired an offer to Alf Wolcott, who is now in Portland, and the latter sent back his terms. He wanted a guarantee of $10,000. His price is too stiff and unless he comes down Coffroth will have to look for another man.

Wolcott says he has received an offer from a San Francisco fight promoter to meet Tommy Murphy in a twenty-round fight in this city February 12. He states he has also received an offer to box Jack Britton of Joe Mandot in New Orleans in March, the exact date not being stated.
